

Tuesday 20th June
10.30 – 11.00	Trump, Brexit and globalisation, the world is changing how does this transition affect OHS? A1.2 / IA1.2 - Societal factors which influence an organisation's health and safety standards and priorities
12.00 – 12.30	It's the dose that makes the poison B2.3 / IB2.3 - The assessment and evaluation of risk from hazardous substances
13.30 – 14.00	Bonding and vibrating, it's all about molecules. C2.1 / IC2.1 - Outline the properties of flammable and explosive materials and the mechanisms by which they ignite
15.00 – 15.30	How to be a study hero Revision techniques
Wednesday 21st June
10.30 – 11.00	Are you the kind of leader you would follow? A9.1 / IA7.1 - Types of safety leadership and their likely impact on health and safety performance
12.00 – 12.30	Can a fake thermostat make you feel cooler? B10.1 / IB10.1 - The need for, and factors involved in, the provision and maintenance of temperature in both moderate and extreme thermal environments
13.30 – 14.00	Do bees have knees? Anthropometrics in our world C5.1 / IC5.1 - The selection of suitable equipment
15.00 – 15.30	How to become the exam question guru Exam techniques
Thursday 22nd June
10.30 – 11.00	Can you see the Great Wall of China from space? A10.2 / IA8.2 - Perception of risk
12.00 – 12.30	Two atoms are walking down the street. The first atom says that he thinks he lost an electron. The second atom asks are you positive? B7.1 / IB7.1 - The nature and different types of ionising and non-ionising radiation
13.30 – 14.00	I couldn't repair your brakes, so I made your horn louder C10.1 / IC10.1 - Workplace transport risk assessment and risk controls
15.00 – 15.30	Stop procrastinating and reach out for your goal Planning your study